

IN CONNECTION WITH OUR 10TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

THE MUSEUM OF AFRICAN CULTURE PRESENTS

DRUMMING WORKSHOP WITH SANGA OF-THE-VALLEY

AUGUST 8 • 7:30-10 PM • WORLD ARTS @ 65 COMMERCIAL STREET

SANGA OF-THE-VALLEY

For over 20 years this charismatic and accomplished Trinidadian musician has thrilled audiences internationally, performing with world renowned drum and dance ensembles, such as Baba Olatunji and the Drums of Passion. As a master percussionist and African Djembe player, Sanga has shared the stage with the likes of Santana, Mickey Hart and the Grateful Dead, and Airto Morea, to name a few. He can be heard on movie scores, including She's Gotta Have it, Coming to America, Serpent and the Rainbow, and In The Blood, as well as many recordings, including Gabrielle Roth and The Mirrors, who he currently performs with.

Pen, paper, and tape recorder suggested.

Co-Sponsored by World Arts and Movement as Healer.
